Jane Correia, director of administration and finance for the Bristol Warren Regional School District, has been selected as the Rhode Island School Business Official of the Year for 2006 by the Rhode Island Association of School Business Officials (RIASBO). Correia was presented with an engraved desk clock at the RIASB annual conference held at the Radisson Hotel in Warwick on May 11.

In addition to receiving the award, the school business official of the year is given the honor of bestowing a $1,000 scholarship on a high school senior who plans to study business in college. Correia selected Mt. Hope High senior Jamie Calenda, who plans to study business at Southern New Hampshire University in the fall.
