RIASBO Announces Ronald D. Tarro, Barrington School District, the 2008 RI School Business Official of the Year

Providence, RI, 5/9/08 – The Rhode Island Association of School Business Officials selected Mr. Ronald D. Tarro, Director of Administration and Finance for the Barrington School District as the Rhode Island School Business Official of the Year for 2008. Tarro was selected by his peers for distinguishing himself in the endeavors of business excellence in education. Mr. Tarro maintains membership in several civic and professional organizations and is currently First Vice President of RIASBO. At their annual conference held at the Crowne Plaza Hotel in Warwick, on Friday May 9, 2008, Tarro was presented with an engraved desk clock to honor the event.

In addition to receiving the award, the school business official of the year is given the honor to bestow a $1,000 scholarship to a high school senior who plans to study business in college. The scholarship is made available through the generosity of Aramark Incorporated. Tarro selected Barrington High School senior Julia Halloran who plans to study business and marketing at the University of Maryland in the fall.

For additional information on Mr. Ronald Tarro's selection as school business official of the year, contact RIASBO president Cynthia Brown.
